COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS POLICY

RELEVANT STANDARD(S):

Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015	Standard 6 Chapter 3 – Support and progression ▪ Clause 6.1-6.5
---	---

PURPOSE

Blast Management International is committed to providing quality training and assessment in accordance with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (SRTOs 2015). This policy provides the framework and general principles for handling complaints and appeals against Blast Management International.

This policy is based on providing and maintaining training services that are fair and reasonable and afford a forum where issues or inadequacies can be resolved. Blast Management International's process provides adequate opportunity for complaints and appeals to be forwarded to the management for resolution in a timely, confidential, and sensitive manner. Blast Management International will ensure that the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness will be adhered to throughout the hearing of all complaints and appeals.

The object of this policy is to ensure that Blast Management International staff act in a professional manner at all times. This policy provides clients with a clear process to register a complaint. It ensures all parties involved are kept informed of the resulting actions and outcomes.

SCOPE

Blast Management International acknowledges the student's right to lodge a complaint or appeal when they are dissatisfied with the training and/or assessment services and experiences that have been provided to them by Blast Management International or by a third-party provider (if applicable).

Complaints Lodgement Form

With this Blast Management International ensures that:

1. it has a procedure for collecting and managing complaints and appeals in a constructive, timely, confidential and sensitive manner
2. these procedures are communicated to all staff, contractors, third party partners and students
3. complaints, appeals and outcomes are recorded in writing;
4. complainants and appellants are given written statements or communication of the appeal or complaints handling outcomes, including decisions and reasons for the decisions
5. outcomes of complaints and appeals are utilised to review current practices which may potentially lead to continuous improvement initiatives in order to mitigate the likelihood of the complaints and appeals.

POLICY PRINCIPLES

Complaints and Appeals Policy:

1. Details concerning the scope of this Policy are to be clearly displayed throughout Blast Management International and contained within the Student Handbook, Staff Handbook and Website.
2. Complaints and appeals are treated seriously and dealt with promptly, impartially, sensitively and in confidence.
3. Complaints and appeals will be resolved on an individual case basis and as the needs arise.

4. All students have the right to express a concern or problem and/or lodge a formal complaint if they are either dissatisfied with the training and assessment services they have been provided (including through a third party if applicable), or the behavioural conduct of another learner or staff of Blast Management International.
5. Blast Management International supports the right of a student to lodge an appeal against any assessment decision and will not impair that right in any way. The organisation will do everything possible to address the appeal in an unbiased and professional manner.
6. The handling of a complaint or appeal is to commence within 10 working days of the lodgement of the complaint or appeal and all reasonable measures are taken to finalise the process as soon as practicable.
7. All complaints and appeals are acknowledged in writing and finalised as soon as practicable. Blast Management International aims to complete the complaints process as quickly as possible and within a total of 30 calendar days. The organisation will keep the student informed of the progress of the complaint throughout the process by phone communication, email correspondence or face-to-face meeting.
8. If the complaint will take more than 60 calendar days to finalise, Blast Management International will inform the complainant in writing providing the reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required.
9. All complaints will be recorded in the Complaints and Appeals Register and on the student record in the Student Management System. These records, including the outcomes, will be secured and maintained by Blast Management International.

10. No Blast Management International staff shall disclose information to any person without the permission of the Training Manager. A decision to release information to third parties can only be made after the complainant has given permission for this to occur.

Types of Complaints:

A complaint or grievance may include allegations involving the conduct of:

1. the RTO, its trainers and assessors or other staff members;
2. a third-party providing services on behalf of Blast Management International; or
3. a student of Blast Management International.

Grounds for Appeal

Valid grounds for an appeal against an assessment decision (where the student feels the assessment decision is incorrect) may include the following:

1. the judgment as to whether competency has been achieved and demonstrated was made incorrectly;
2. the judgment was not made in accordance with the assessment plan;
3. alleged bias of the assessor;
4. alleged lack of competence of the assessor;
5. alleged wrong information from the assessor regarding the assessment process;
6. alleged inappropriate assessment process for the particular competency;
7. faulty or inappropriate equipment; and/or
8. inappropriate conditions.

Appeal Outcomes

1. Appeal is upheld; in this event the following options will be available:
 - a. Blast Management International's assessment practices will be re-assessed, potentially by another assessor.
 - b. Appropriate recognition will be granted.
 - c. A new assessment shall be conducted / arranged.
2. Appeal is rejected / not upheld; in accordance with the Blast Management International assessment policy, the client will be required to:
 - a. undertake further training or experience prior to further assessment; or
 - b. re-submit further evidence; or
 - c. submit / undertake a new assessment
4. The complaint resolution procedure is based on the understanding that no action will be taken without consulting the complainant and respondent, using a process of discussion, cooperation and conciliation. The rights of the complainant and respondent will be acknowledged and protected throughout the complaint resolution process, including the conduct of separate interviews initially.
5. In the interest of confidentiality, the number of people involved in the resolution process will be kept to a minimum. All complaints will be handled as staff-in-confidence and will not affect or bias the progress of the student in any current or future training.
6. Final decisions will be made by the Training Manager of Blast Management International or an independent party to the complainant.
7. If the complaints process fails to resolve the complaint or the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of the complaint, the matter will be referred to an independent third party for review, at the request of the complainant. The complainant will be advised of all costs incurred by the third-party review.
8. Blast Management International reserves the right to nominate or agree to the independent party and will cooperate fully with the independent third-party review.

Complaints and Appeals Process

1. Blast Management International adopts the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness at every stage of the complaints and appeals process. All complaints and appeals will be handled in accordance with the Complaints and Appeals Procedure document.
2. Students are provided with a clear process to follow in order to lodge a complaint or an appeal. All parties involved will be kept informed of the resulting actions and outcomes.
3. If a student has a complaint, they are encouraged to speak immediately with a trainer/assessor to resolve the issue. If the complainant is not satisfied that the issue has been resolved, they will be asked to complete a Complaints Lodgement Form and submit a formal complaint.

Consumer Protection Officer

At Blast Management International, the Training Manager will be appointed the Consumer Protection Officer. The Consumer Protection Officer will be the primary point of contact for all complaints and appeals.

The Training Manager may delegate responsibility for the resolution of the complaint and appeal if necessary. Blast Management International will ensure that its staff and those acting on its behalf adhere to its Code of Conduct and Appeals Policies.
